A journey to experience
life's fullest.

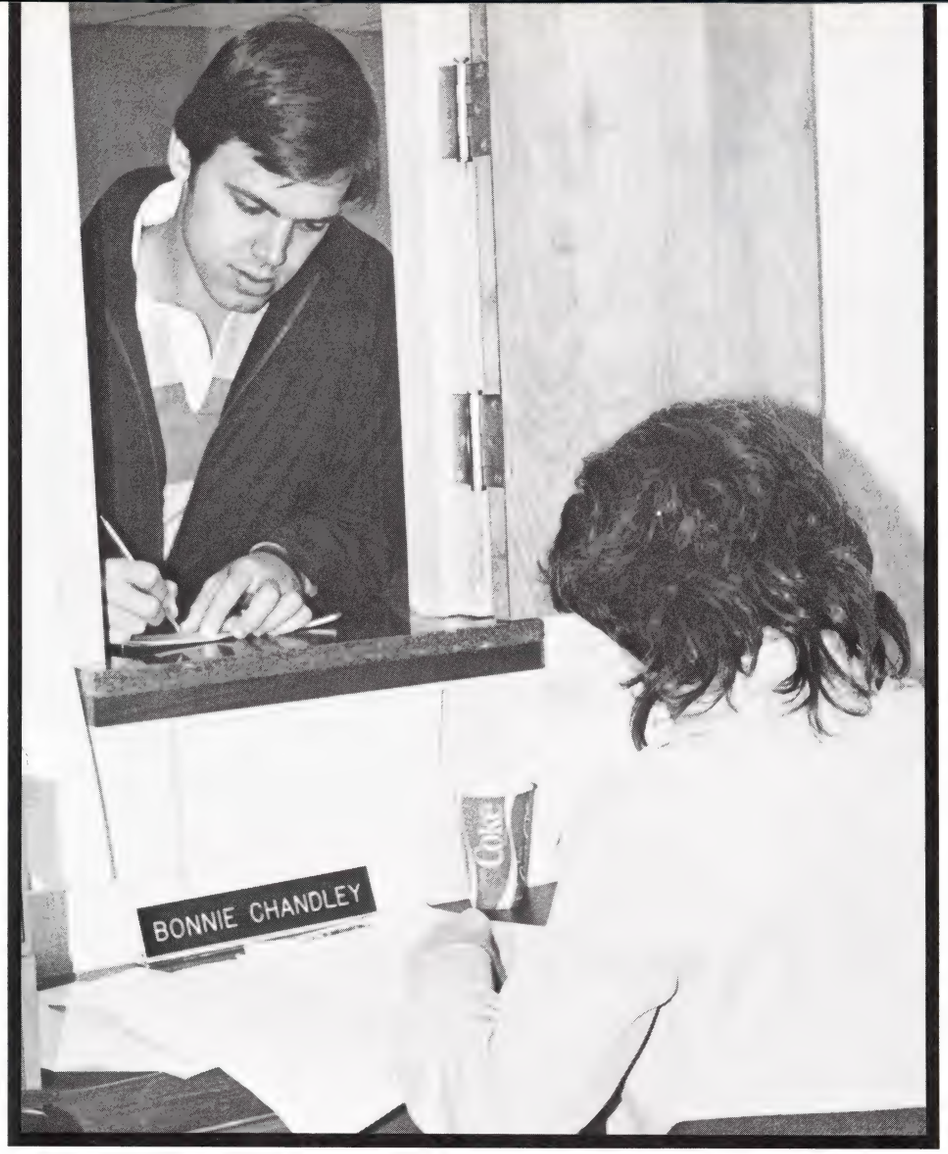

East Tennessee State University's official enrollment was over 9,500 for fall quarter, 1976.

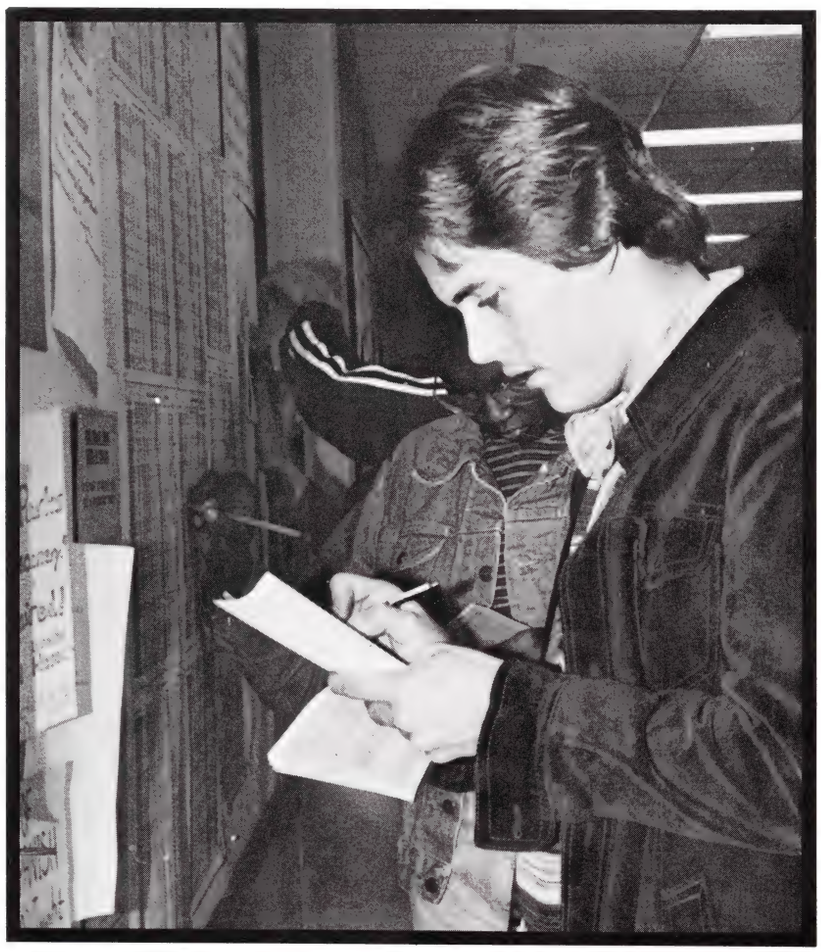

Students registered with the aid of the computer, getting rid of a lot of fuss with five to ten registration cards. The student only had to fill out two — one for the University and one for himself. From there, registering was only a matter of minutes. ID's were shown, cards processed, and schedule approved.

From the Registration Center the student went to the Business office where his fees were itemized on the computer. When he paid his fees, the cashier validated his ID card, completing the total registration process.

MOVING IN

With the beginning of a new quarter there comes a time that few ever forget, fewer enjoy, and most simply endure as one of life's less pleasant moments: the ordeal of moving in. For freshmen, moving in is generally a new experience, often filled with energy, enthusiasm, and optimism about their new home. But for the older and wiser the move is more often met with yawns and groans and an occasional smile for a long-forgotten friend. Regardless of the hassels moving in creates, it marks the beginning of a new quarter which brings new friends, new experiences, and quite likely an entire new life style.

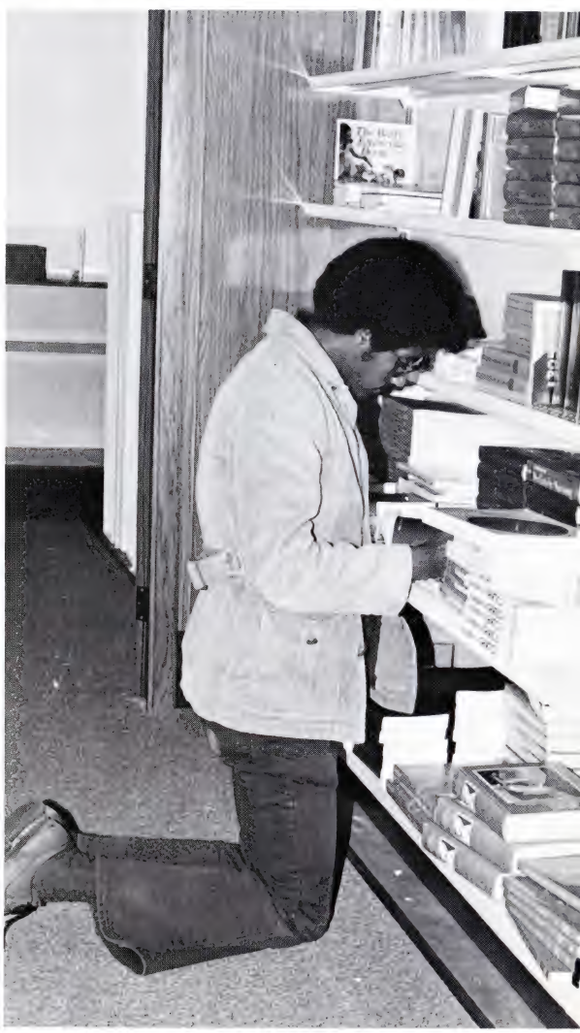

University Bookstore

The East Tennessee State University Bookstore offers a wide variety of goods to its students. Housed in the new Student Center, it makes shopping a lot more convenient and faster.

Dorm Life

The dormitory is a temporary home for a lot of college students. It is a place where activity can be found at almost any time of day or night, whether it's a friendly game of cards, water-fights from top balconies to passers-by, or getting together for a "scoop" session between bouts of studying. Living in a dormitory can contribute to ones total educational experience in that it teaches one the art of getting along with others.

RUSH

Rush? Everyone's heard the term. Just what is rush? Rush is an opportunity to meet people, learn about different fraternities, and to party — which is everyone's favorite pastime. Fraternity rush is a hectic week. Guys interested in fraternities visit each fraternity house where they get to know the members and learn more about fraternity life.

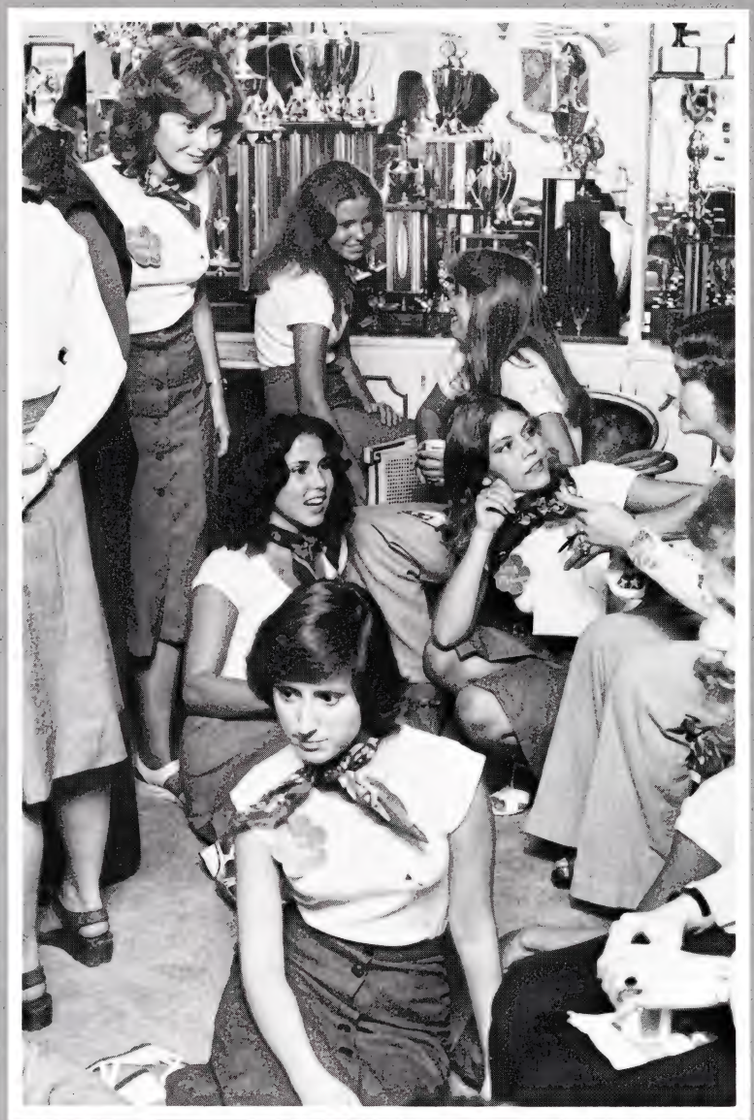

1. Butch Fortune, Randy Heaton, and Ted Hylton sign guys up for rush. 2. The SAE's are ready to party! 3. Phi Sigma Kappa brothers talk with their Little Sisters. 4. The brothers of Sigma Chi are ready for rush.

Sorority rush was also an exciting week for the girls of the seven national sororities on our campus. Approximately 150 girls participated in formal rush. Rush week began with registration and a salad bar supper, followed by first round parties, theme parties, preferential parties, and finally, the candlelight service.

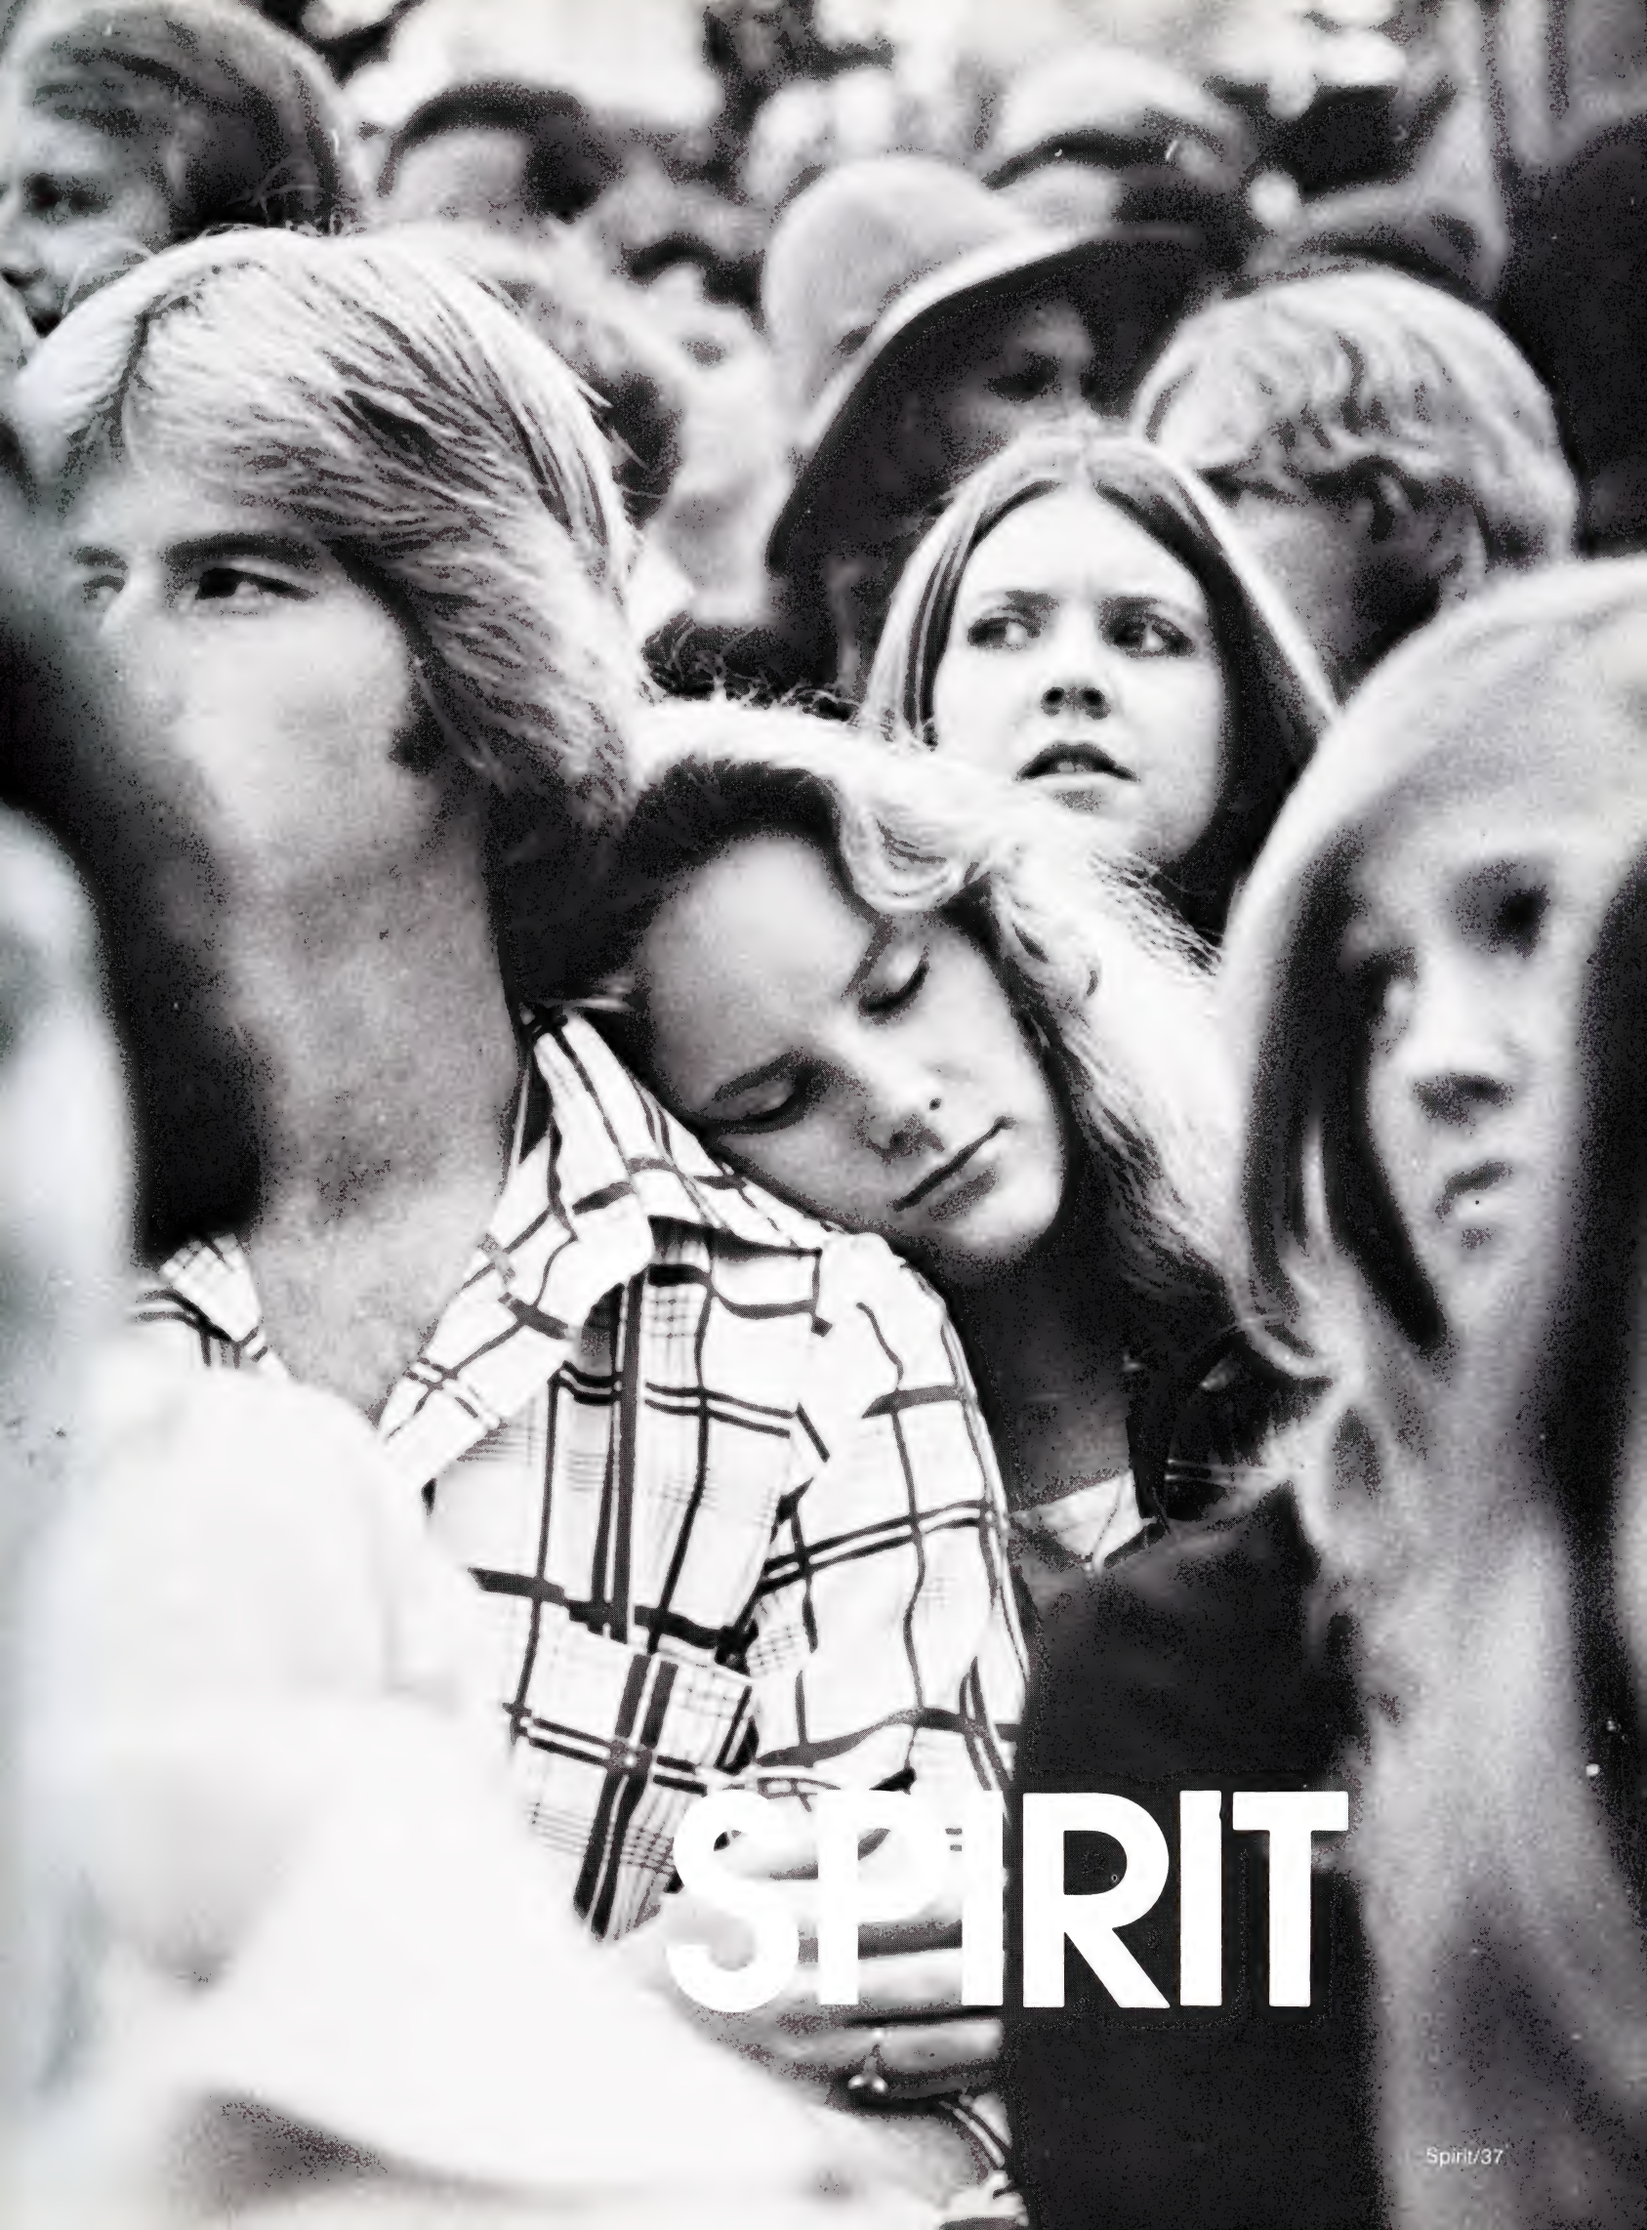

1. The sisters of Delta Zeta entertain rushees during formal rush. 2. Sigma Kappa's talk with rushees. 3. A salad bar supper was the kick-off for the beginning of formal rush. 4. The Phi Mu's join hands as they enter Panhellenic building after candlelight. 5. The AOPi's join hands with the rushees to sing. 6. Barbara Yantz and Linda Pierce show the Kappa Delta scrapbook to a rushee.

Smiling Faces. Laughing Faces. Puzzled Faces. Sleeping Faces. The many faces of Buccaneer Spirit thriving on their uniqueness and existing through individualism. A smile for the camera, a frown for the ref, a look of indifference for all involved. So many faces all contributing to the collage of BUCCANEER SPIRIT!

A special feeling of pride, support, and determination no matter what the outcome. The Bucs lost the Homecoming Game. And it rained. But the cheerleaders cheered, the crowd yelled, and the people smiled. Spirit. An internal, eternal conviction deep within the soul. Where's yours?

DERBY DAY 1976

The Zeta Omega Chapter of Sigma Chi held its sixth annual Derby Day. Sigma Kappa captured the first place trophy as they had done the year before. Delta Zeta placed second and Kappa Delta placed third. Miss Gincy Ownby, a member of Sigma Kappa, was chosen as Miss Derby Day 1976. Other contestants included Tina Abbott, Kappa Delta; Marcia Mathes, Alpha Delta Pi; Retha Cole, Alpha Xi Delta; and Lynette Kemp, Delta Zeta.

Among the outdoor events held for the five competing sororities were an obstacle course, musical ice buckets, a tissue paper wrap-up, the "Zipped Strip," the "Bamboo Ramble," and "Monkey Business." The most competitive event was the "Derby Steal." Girls from each sorority chase Sigma Chi brothers all over the campus for derby hats.

A dance was held at the V.F.W. to honor the sororities competing in Derby Week 1976.

1. Miss Gincy Ownby, a Sigma Kappa, was chosen as Miss Derby Day 1976. 2. Catching a derby means more points. 3. A member of Sigma Kappa is trying to find her partner's banana in the "Monkey Business" event. 4. The ADPi's are hoping for a first place victory. 5. Pam Sams, a member of Alpha Delta Pi, is involved in the "Zipped Strip" event. 6. The KD Ladies are cheering for the Sigma Chi Derby Day.

SNAKE DAY

The third annual Snake Day, sponsored by Sigma Nu Fraternity, was a unique experience for the sororities that competed in the all-day events at the Sigma Nu house.

The Phi Mu sorority won first place in the 1976 competition. Sigma Kappa placed second and the Kappa Delta's took the third place trophy. Brothers from the University of Tennessee chapter of Sigma Nu judged the events. The girls were judged on events held at the house, a city-wide scavenger hunt, signs, participation, and spirit. The day's hectic activities ended with a dance honoring all the sororities involved.

1. Maureen Dieter, a member of Alpha Omicron Pi, talks with Steve Norris, a member of Sigma Nu. 2. The Phi Mu's are the winners. 3. The sisters of Sigma Kappa show their Snake Day spirit. 4. The Kappa Delta's pull together for a Snake Day victory. 5. A member of Alpha Xi Delta takes time out to bump with a Sigma Nu.

DIAMOND DAY 1976

Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity edged by Sigma Phi Epsilon in the final activities of Diamond Day to win first place. Sigma Phi Epsilon followed the Pikes in the annual competition, and Kappa Alpha placed third.

Diamond Day is sponsored each spring by Alpha Delta Pi. It is the only fraternity competition sponsored by a sorority.

Fraternities are judged during a two-day period at the track field and the amphitheater. First day events include relay races, a tricycle race, and tug of war. Second day events, which are held at the amphitheater, include barbershop quartet, "muscle"man, and egg drop. The events require skill and imagination from each fraternity.

1. Bombs away! 2. PiKA shows how it's done. 3. "Gentlemen prefer Hanes" was a hairy event for the guys involved. 4. PiKA's sing their way to first place. 5. Pull Ken, P-U-L-L!

Political analysts call it a lively example of regional pride. Some Republicans connect it with the lingering effects of the Watergate Scandals and the Nixon pardon while others blame the intra-party bitterness following the Ford-Reagan split at the convention. High voter turnout? A faltering economy? Unemployment? Minority votes?

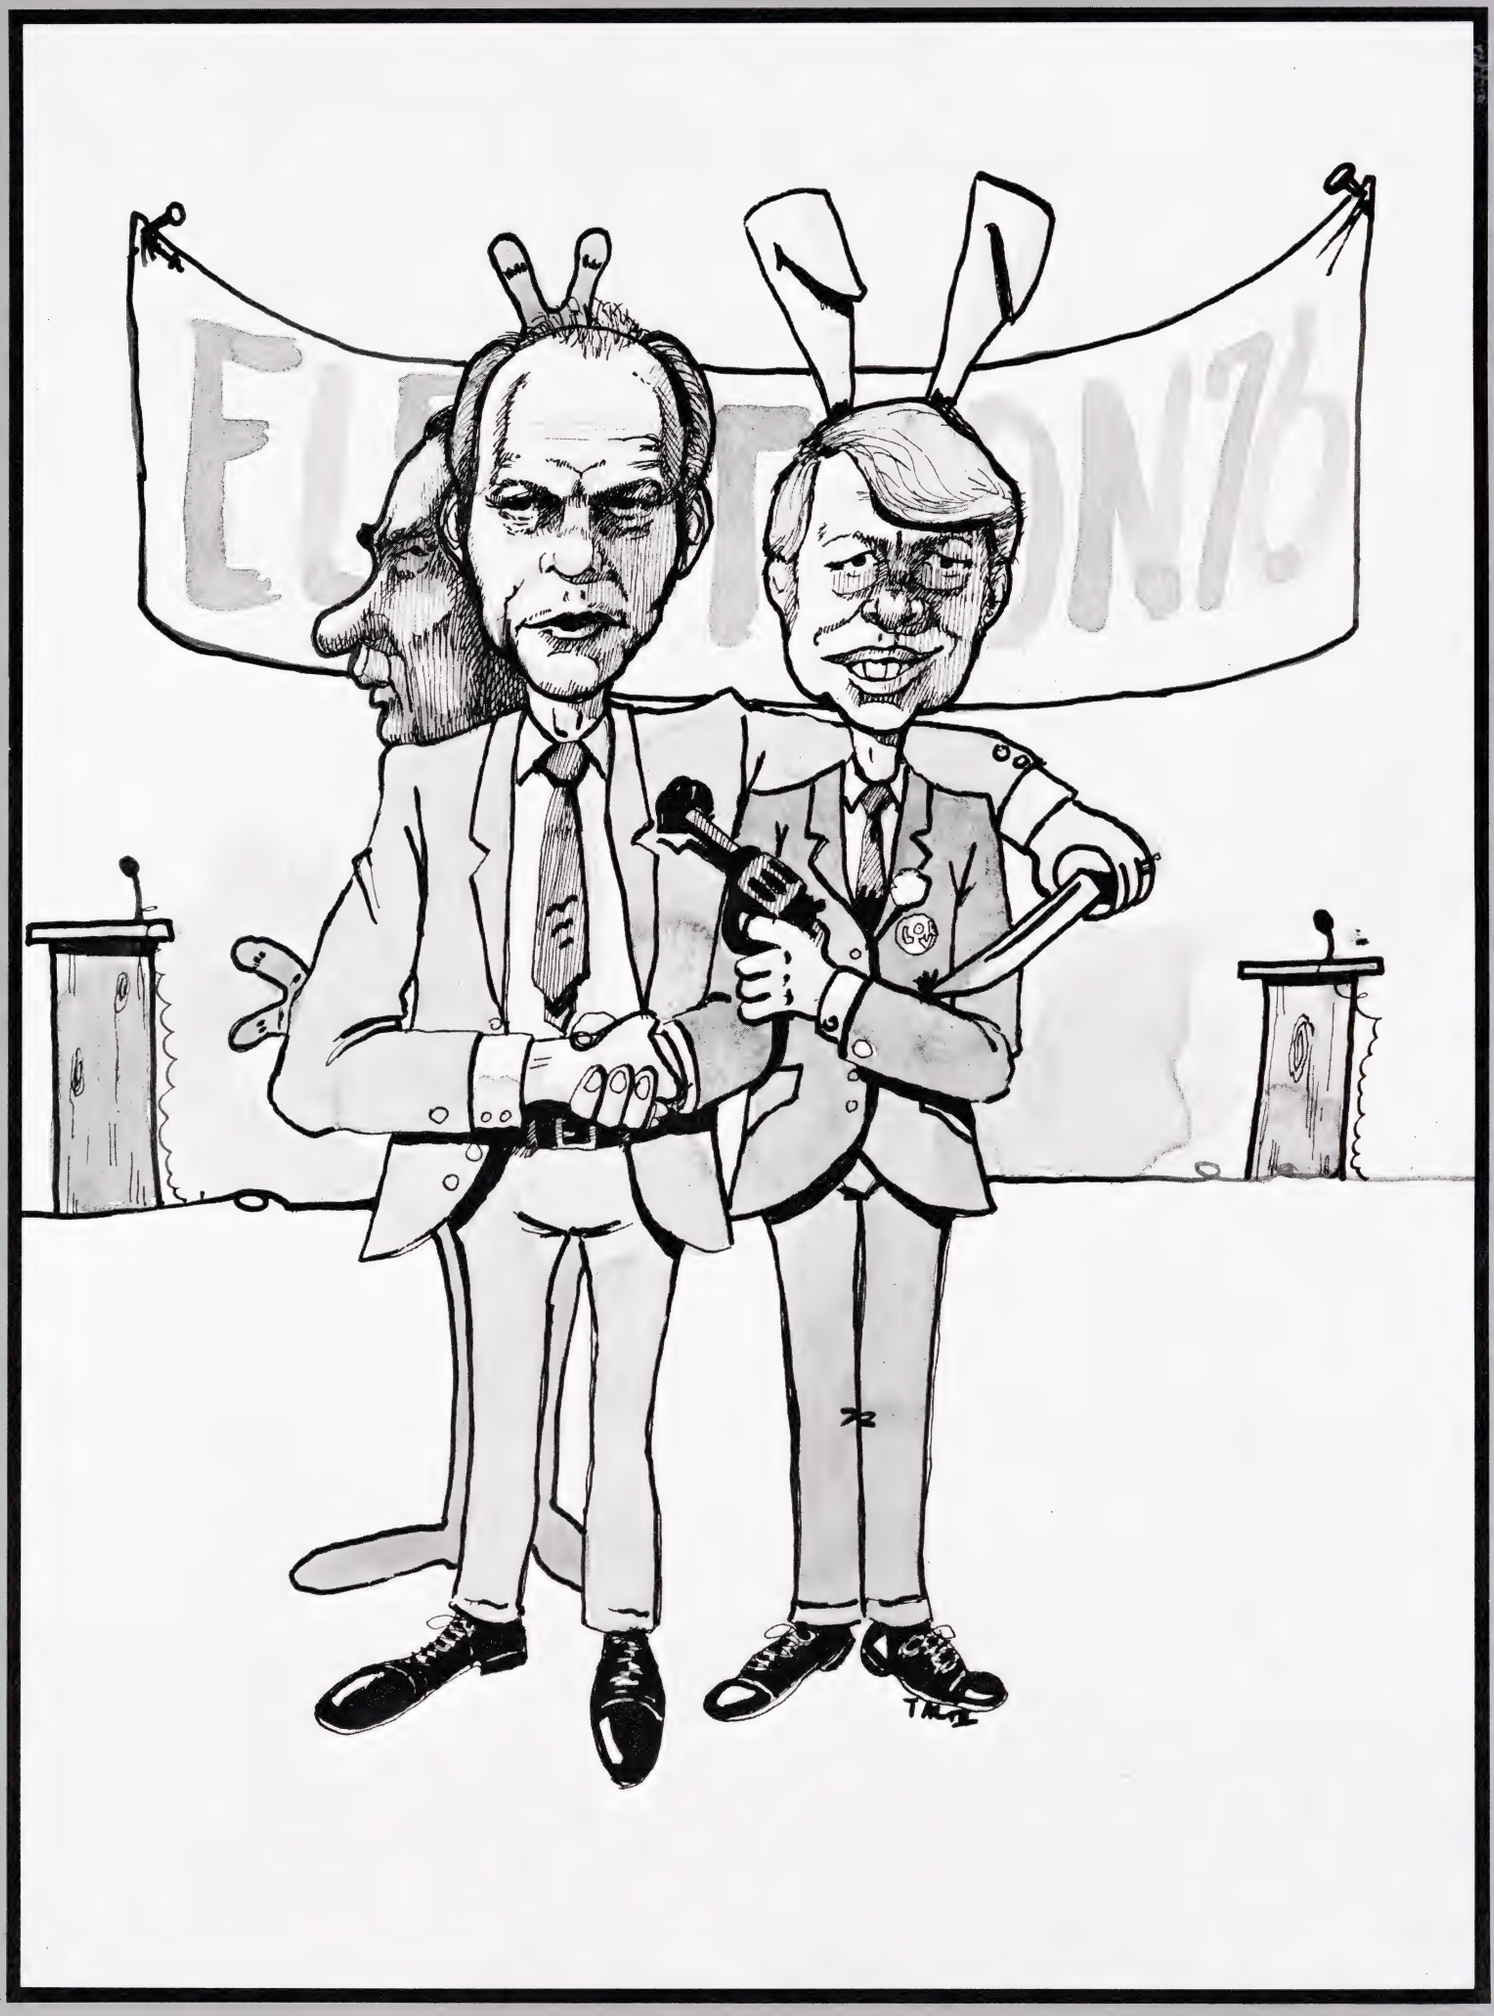

Carter Charisma and Dixie Determination coupled with other deciding factors have put the first Southerner in Washington to win the White House on his own since the Civil War.

The President-elect walked into Washington with a mere 51% of the popular vote, promising to bring government back to the people. Armed with only a bundle of campaign promises, a seemingly sincere heart, and a gigantic desire to succeed, Jimmy Carter met the monsterous Federal Bureaucracy he so much hopes to tame. His cabinet members, though not unknowns, are a slight departure from the regular Washington crew. His inaugural address was brief and his walk with wife Rosalyn down the Inaugural Parade route was different to say the least.

It does indeed seem that President Jimmy Carter intends to get the presidency back in touch with the people. "I believe in the next four years that we will have a sense of purpose, a sense that the Government belongs to us," proclaimed Carter and all indications seem to reinforce that proclamation.

Whatever the next four years hold, whatever the presidency of James Earl Carter has to offer to the American people can only be determined by time itself. The bicentennial victory of Jimmy Carter, small-town boy from the Southern United States, will make a startling difference in the lives of each and every American citizen. Perhaps politics has taken a swing toward the general public, perhaps the country is in the mood for considerable change, and perhaps that change will come during the presidency of Jimmy Carter. Perhaps. But only time will tell.

POLITICS 1976

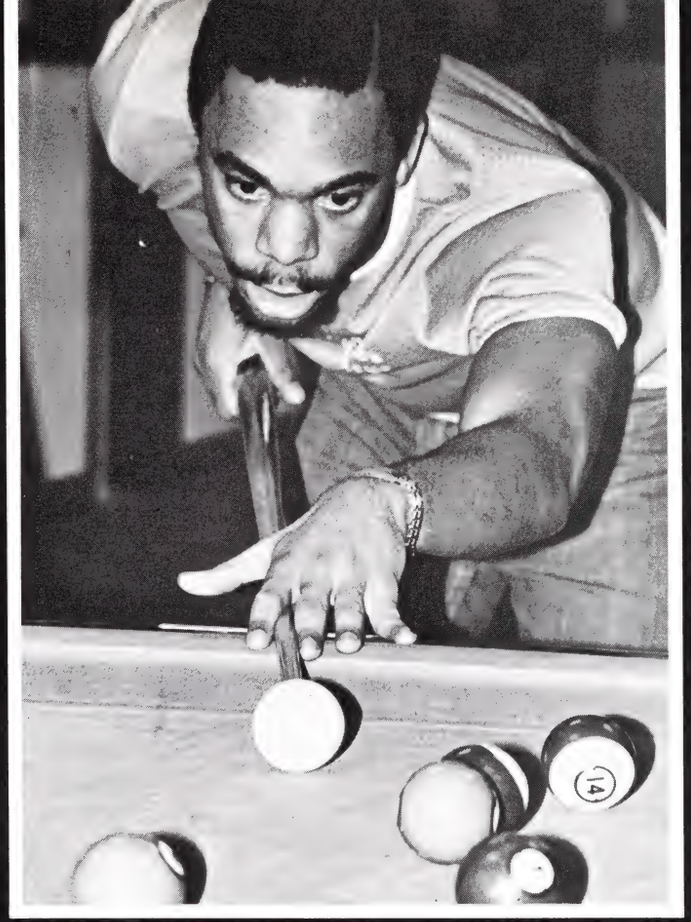

Ode to the Leisure Life

There ain't enough
That's what I say
There ain't enough time
In college to play.

Can't party enough
Can't have no fun
Cause the fun can't start
Till the work is done.

Got lots of things
More important to do
But you can't get goin'
Till the studyin' is through.

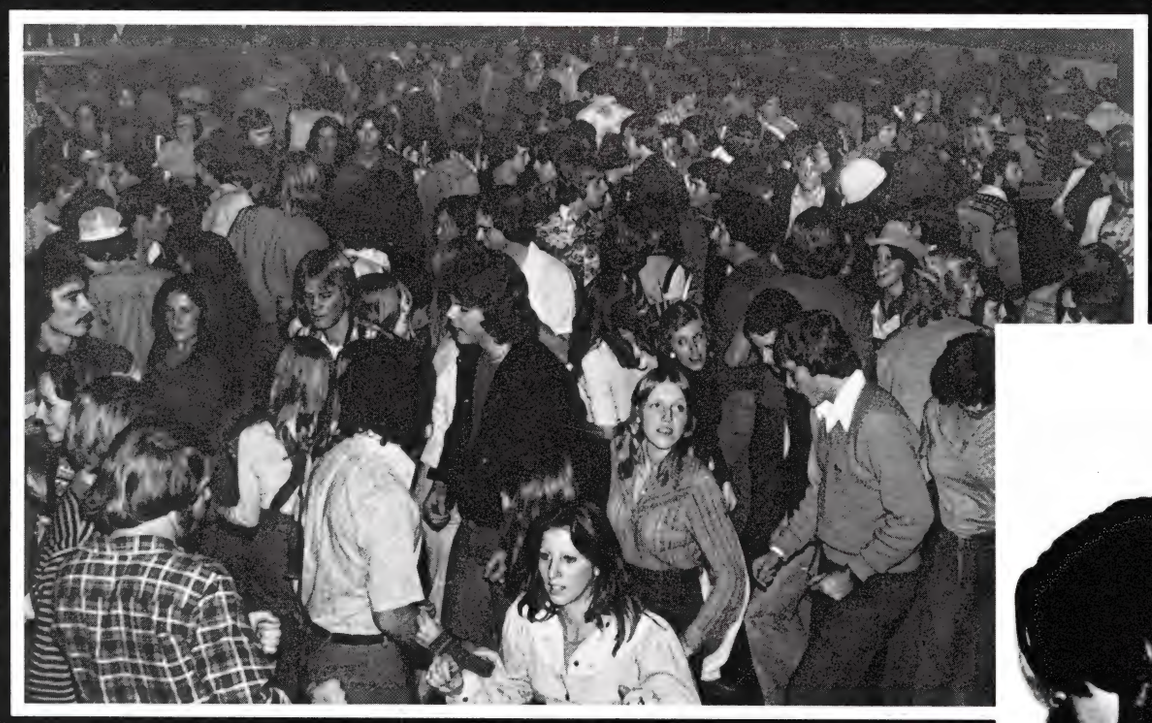

Got to learn your lessons
Get the most for your dollar
Or you ain't gonna be
A brilliant scholar.

No pool, no ping-pong
No tu-la-fe
Got a test coming up
The very next day.

Got to hit them books
And hit them right
No fun time for you
At least not tonight.

But if you get a chance
And you just can't wait
Party on down
And don't be late.

Campus Police

Another parking ticket? To the student who walks across campus, a policeman with pad in hand busily scratching up an amount that will cause the student to sacrifice a meal or two; it seems endless. However, the police are trying to regulate parking dilemmas that frequently arise due to crowded conditions. They also control crowds at campus events, and provide security for the population of ETSU. They are well-trained, qualified, and independently working to protect the rights of individuals on campus.

BUCS TIED FOR SECOND . . . FOR A SECOND

For the first time since 1969 there was excitement and talk going around about Buccaneer Football. After beating top ranked Tennessee Tech in the mud, the Bucs were 3-1 in the conference and tied for second. With three relatively easy conference games left, the chances for a good season were exciting.

The excitement had started with ETSU beating Western Kentucky for the first time since 1969. This win was followed with wins in the mud against Murray State and then in the mud against Tech. The rest of the season was a slide downhill, the Bucs losing their last four games. Even though the final record was 3 wins and 7 losses, the year was not as bad as expected. As it was, the Buccaneers finished fourth in the OVC, considerably higher than the predicted seventh place finish.

The fans saw excellent play all year from the defensive line, with goal line stands a commonplace event. Buccaneer receivers had a good year too with Dennis Law, Doug Parham, Tom Buchanan, and others carrying the load of the Buc offensive attack. Charles Norman, Gary Jennings, Greg Wilson, Rick Begley, Marty Tinglehoff and Gene Veneble all had a good year for the Bucs.

TRACK AND CROSS COUNTRY

The National Collegiate Athletic Association Champions were a common factor for Buccaneer Track and Cross Country teams. Last May (1976), seven E.T.S.U. track team members attended the national championships to vie for first place wins. Mike Halim and Ray Flynn both faired well in the meet. Halim qualified for the finals with a record breaking 25'4" jump. The jump set a new E.T.S.U. record. Ray Flynn just missed qualifying after being bumped off the track in the final 300 yards. A protest achieved no results. Mike Halim went on to finish fifth in the final competition, and was honored with All-American laudits for his efforts.

The Buccaneer Cross Country team had to tangle with illness and injury all season. They still managed to send the entire team to the NCAA Championships in November of 1976. This was the seventh season in a row that the E.T.S.U. thinclads have been present at the meet. Louis Kenny placed twenty-sixth in the event, while the team placed a disappointing twenty-second. Earlier in the season the Bucs won the prestigious Indiana University Invitational, a highlight of the 1976 season. Mark Finucane had a rewarding season, competing in the AAU Championships and receiving All-American honoors. Coach Dave Walker deserves a pat on the back for these two fine Buccaneer teams.

"SONNY" BUCCANEER BASKETBALL

The 1976-77 basketball season marked the year that Charles H. "Sonny" Smith became the new head coach at ETSU. Smith, a highly respected basketball tactician, is a native of Roan Mountain and comes to ETSU after five years as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech.

Also new in the Buc coaching staff are assistants Jim Hallihan and Mack McCarthy who came to ETSU from Virginia Tech and Henry Argabrite, a graduate assistant who formerly coached at Steed College in Johnson City.

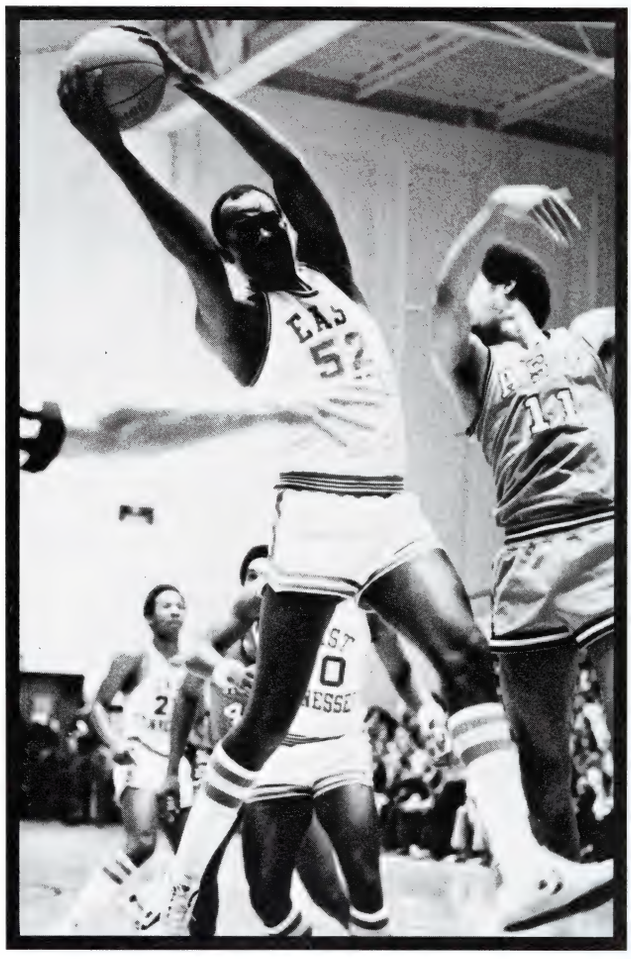

The 1976-77 season also marked the upsurgance of fan support for Buccaneer basketball as ETSU quickly became more competetive in the Ohio Valley Conference than it had been in several years and posted a .500 average in a season that would have to be termed rebuilding. The success of the Bucs resulted from the quick meshing of veteran players such as Bob Brown, Charlie Stuart, and Ron Richardson with the upcoming Buc stars such as Atlee Hammaker, Scott Place, Brent Johnson, Luke Venny, Jim Smith, and Terry Poindexter.

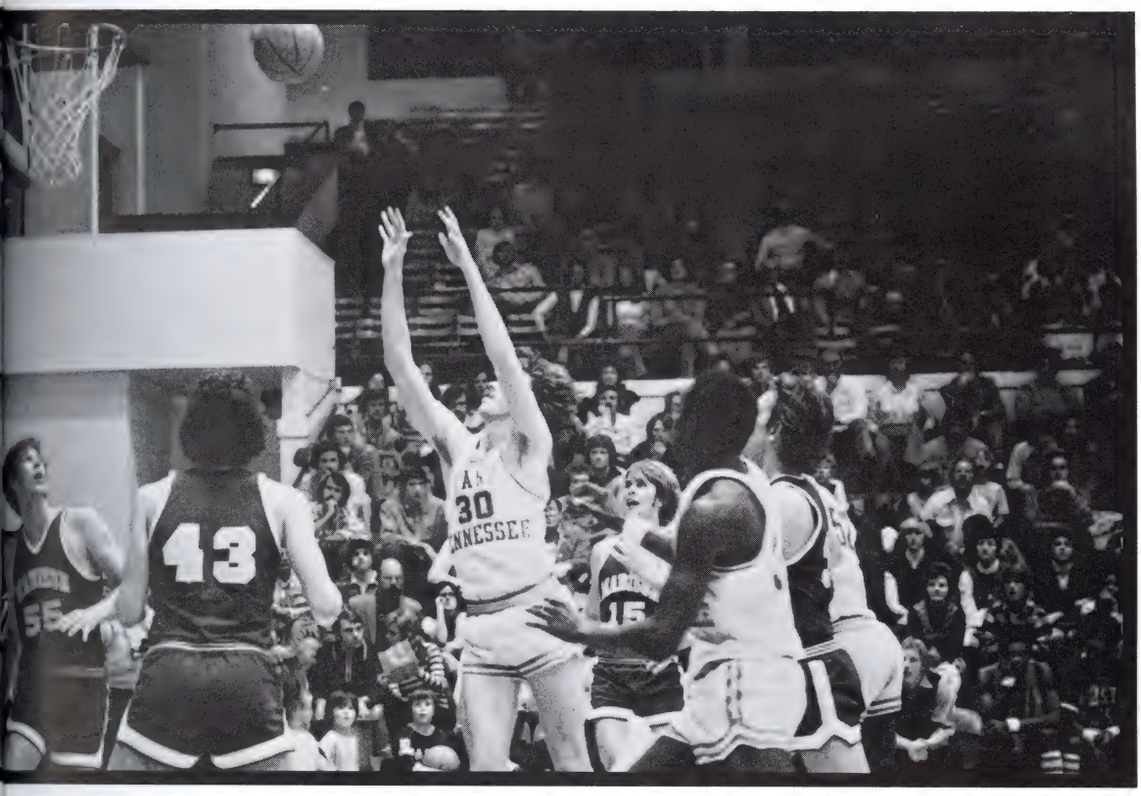

Overall, it sums it up to say that the future of Buccaneer basketball sure looks "Sonny".

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

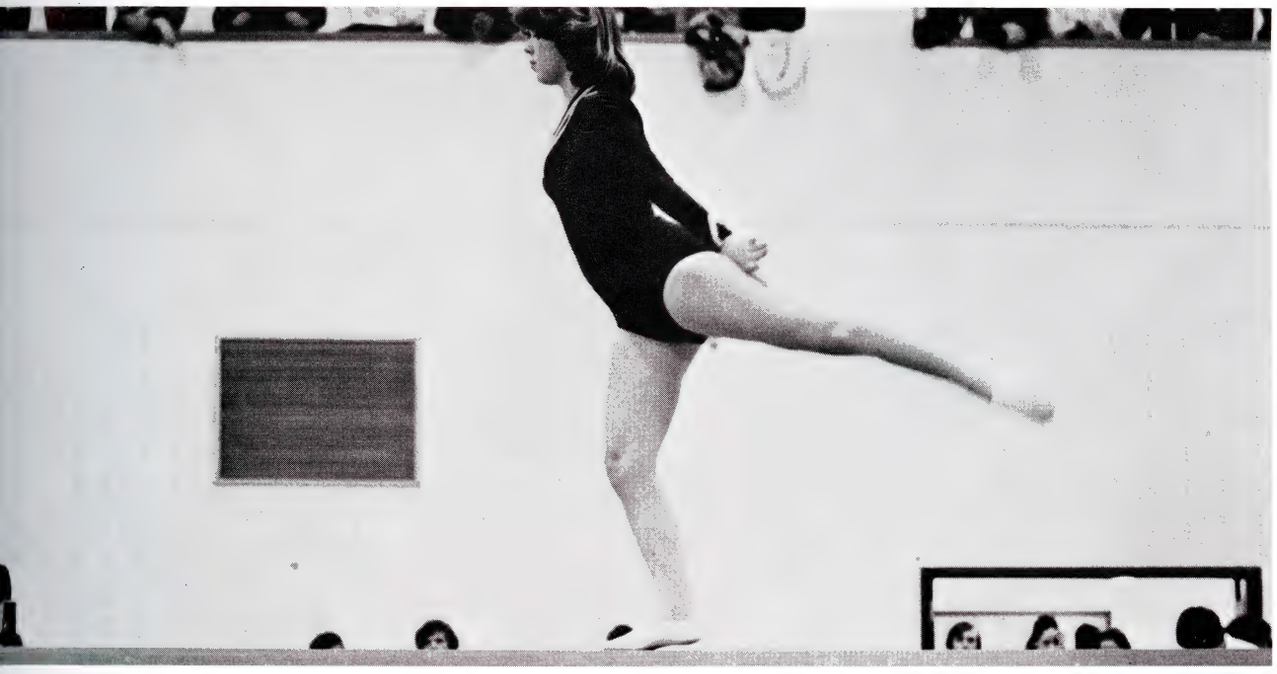

1976-77 saw an upsurgance of crowd support for women's sports at E.T.S.U. Women at State compete intercollegiately in Basketball, Volleyball, Tennis, Gymnastics, and Track.

Volleyball was the Headliner of this year's teams. Emily Walker's young Lady Bucs finished 23-12 overall, winning the Tennessee State Championships and finishing second in the West Georgia Invitational Volleyball Tournament. Sophomore Nancy Beal and Seniors Carol Wilson and Deby Jones made the All-State team. This was the second State Championship in a row for the Lady Bucs who will graduate only 3 seniors and look for another good year next year.

The Basketball Lady Bucs had an encouraging year also. They bounced back from a 3-11 record in 1976 to an over the hump 9-8 record this year. Nancy Boller's squad attended the State Championships and competed against strong teams. While the Bucs only had two women with scholarships, many of their competitors had whole teams on scholarship.

All women's athletics, under the supervision of Janice Shelton, has seen great strides and deserve full student body support.

"WE'RE A UNIVERSITY TOWN"

When the Johnson City Area Chamber of Commerce wants to impress a visitor, one of the first things we tell them is "We're a University Town."

East Tennessee State University is one of our greatest assets because its faculty and students contribute greatly to the economic, social, and cultural welfare of Johnson City and Upper East Tennessee. We are happy this is "Big Blue" Country and proud to be a "University Town."

The name of the game is quality.

A quality team welcomes the toughest challenge to prove how good it is. So does Pabst. We've been brewing America's quality beer since 1844, which gives us the confidence to make this challenge of our own: taste and compare Pabst Blue Ribbon quality and flavor with any other beer. One glass and you'll know that Blue Ribbon quality means the best tasting beer you can get.

PABST. Since 1844. The quality has always come through.

Editor's Note

Few people will ever know how much hard work and how many long hours have gone into putting this yearbook together. One thing can be said about the yearbook staff — we all had a good time. Everyone worked hard on the deadlines and sometimes we even made a few of them. I would like to thank some of the people who helped put the yearbook together. Pam Arrowood, assistant editor, was the hardest working member of the staff. She worked hard to help meet our deadlines, especially by typing. Susan Scott and Debbie Ramsey also did a lot of work in putting the book together. They both did an excellent job. Thanks goes to Rick Kelly for putting the entire Sports section together single handedly. He did everything from writing copy to drawing layouts. Peggy Love did a great job in organizing and contacting all of the fraternities and sororities for the Greek section. Thanks to Bill Fletcher for all of the great pictures he made for the yearbook and to Penny White for all of her fantastic copy. Thanks to all of the people on the EAST TENNESSEAN who gave us pictures and information. Mr. Tom Daniel once again came through with his great photographic work with the help from his assistants in the Photo Lab — Tom Bayless and Suzie Walker. Thanks to Mark Beard who did everything from typing to writing copy. Also thanks to Bill Stoess, our yearbook representative, for all his help in planning and for his photography. Thanks to Gene Castle for writing the checks and to Nancy Brown for her typing. Thanks go to Ted, Melissa, Terrie, Suzanne, Pam, Tom, and Terry and everyone who had a part in putting the yearbook together. I never could have done it without you.
